

CAMP KAHQUAH - STAFF AGREEMENT

Conditions of Ministry

Camp Kahquah agrees to:

- provide room and board
- allow time off each week
- make the camp standards clearly understood when you join our team in regards to job description, accountability, curfew, off-camp privileges and consequences of misbehavior
- make directions clear and simple and give you the time and space to complete your tasks
- attempt to make your stay with us a fun and enjoyable experience that you will be anxious to repeat
- provide daily devotions and fellowship times
- pray daily for you and provide listening ears if you need them

I have agreed to:

- Return a signed copy of the "Staff Commitment Form" to the Camp Office prior to commencing responsibilities at the camp
- perform to the best of my abilities all assigned duties
- respect the authority of those who are in leadership positions
- seek the counsel of my supervisor in matters of concern
- abide by all Camp Policies
- maintain a vital, growing relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ and to demonstrate it in my life and character

Disciplinary Policy

In matters of policy and procedure and the rules of Camp Kahquah, failure to comply will result in disciplinary action initiated by the Supervisor or Director. Disciplinary issues will be dealt with on an individual basis.

Corrective instruction will be given by those under whose authority you are serving should such be necessary. It is expected that all staff accept and abide by such instruction. Deliberate breach of camp policies could result in any or all of the following measures being taken by the Camp directors:

- a change in assigned responsibilities
- loss of staff privileges
- consulting with your parents (in the case of a minor)
- early termination of your responsibilities
- being asked to leave camp immediately

Staff Commitment Form

Statement:

I have read, understand and agree to:

- all "General Guidelines & Expectations"
- to uphold the values as listed in "The Ministry of Camp Kahquah"
- strive to the best of my ability to become a team member as outlined in "Commitment to Team"

I understand that Camp Kahquah reserves the right to terminate this agreement due to non-compliance by any staff member.
