Day Fee

A part of our fee revenue is used to cover family camp costs. Rather than institute a day fee for those who use the Camp but stay offsite for the evening, we will continue to welcome donations towards the camp.

Reservations

In order to secure a reservation for the following year:

1. For an accommodation that you occupied during the current summer
 - a minimum payment of 20% of the 2008 accommodation fee by September 30, 2008
 - if no deposit is placed on a site by the above date, the site will become available to those on a waiting list and then to those who phone in on a first come first served basis
 - this deposit is non-refundable for cancellations after June 15, 2009
2. A waiting list for possible accommodations for the next year will open up on the first day of family camp
 - the list will be maintained throughout the year
 - when accommodations become available, applicants will be notified in order
 - once an applicant has been notified that a site is available, the applicant will have 14 days to make the required deposit.
3. If a cancellation is necessary between September 30, 2008 and June 15, 2009, a number of options exist:
 - 100% deferred: the deposit is deferred to a future time with no site guarantee
 - 100% donation to the CK Assistance Fund with a donation receipt. (This fund allows the camp to provide assistance for those who would find it difficult to attend children's camp because of finances)
 - Deposit refund less $25 cancellation fee
4. An additional 30% of the 2008 accommodation fee will be due by June 15, 2009
 - an invoice will be sent out by May 15, 2009 to all of those who have made deposits
 - if no additional deposit is made, the client will be notified by phone after June 15, 2009
 - if no additional deposit is made, the reservation will be cancelled and the site will become available to those on a waiting list and then to those who phone in on a first come first served basis
5. If a cancellation is necessary between June 15, 2009 and Family Camp, a number of options exist:
 - 100% deferred: the deposit is deferred to a future time with no site guarantee
 - 100% donation to the CK Assistance Fund with a donation receipt. (This fund allows the camp to provide assistance for those who would find it difficult to attend children's camp because of finances)
 - 100% refund for a medical emergency or the death of a close relative - at the discretion of the Camp Director
 - Loss of deposit

Note: Cancellations must be made in writing (written letter or email) to the camp office.
